Summer Catalogue: December to 2nd March The start of a busy year began with the continuation of our Summer Catalogue which runs until the end of this month. A wide range of work in this catalogue has attracted much attention and sales with works as diverse as salt glazed pots by Barry Brickell, early colonial artworks and new works by a variety of contemporary New Zealand artists.

“Art is not Black and White” is the show scheduled for March as part of “White Night” and the Auckland Arts Festival running from the 6th to the 28th of March. There will be a strong contingent of works by leading New Zealand artists including Nick Wall, Roy Good, Philippa Blair, Alex Bartleet, Darryn George, Gordon Walters, Max Gimblett, Sarah Hughs, Amy Melchoir, Robyn Gibson, Don Binney and other artists to be confirmed. “White Night” is now one of the most successful visual arts events involving the dealer gallery circuit, this event is scheduled for Saturday the 16th of March.

Exhibitions: Upcoming in the next few months shows include Mark Wooller (April), Justin Summerton (May), “Early New Zealand Modernists and their Followers” and a fine art exhibition celebrating the gallery’s “25 Years in Parnell”. This catalogue show will take place in June. We will be including quality artworks from several estates and collections including a fine Gottfried Lindauer oil on canvas, an outstanding Sir Toss Woollaston oil on canvas, a superb 1959 Doris Lusk oil and many other rare collectors’ paintings. There will also be a fine selection of contemporary artwork from the gallery and other leading New Zealand artists. Mid-year we are mounting this most interesting and intriguing exhibition titled “Early New Zealand Modernists and their Followers”. This show will feature early New Zealand Modernists from the 1930s to the 1980s, some well-known and some not so well-known. This is a show aimed at dedicated art lovers and collectors– that is you! A show not to be missed.

Other News: Gallery Artists with Residencies and Overseas Exhibitions

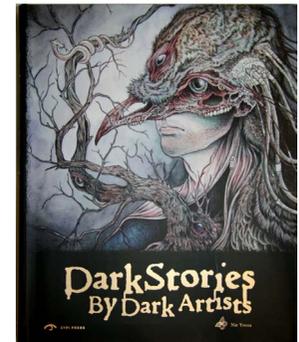

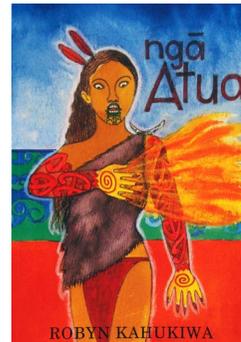

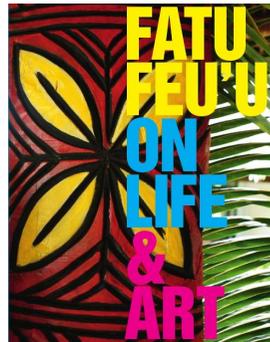

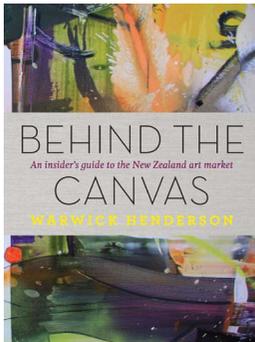

Exhibitions: Congratulations to Fatu Feu’u as he has been included in a major South Pacific exhibition in Cologne Germany, starting on the 13th of October 2013. Fatu has also been commissioned to complete a major work for the show, apart from other major paintings of his which will be included in the exhibition.

Good to hear Alexander Bartleet has been asked to exhibit his much admired work “Object Cave” at Silo Park for the “White Night” evening. Alexander Bartleet, Mark Wooller and Amy Melchior were featured in recent NZ House & Garden magazine issues. In August Fatu Feu'u, Robyn Kahukiwa, Mark Wooller and Alexander Bartleet will feature at the Auckland Art Fair 2013 and Amy Melchior has a show scheduled with us in October.

Celebrations were also in order for Chris Pole, our Christchurch based artist who has been granted a two month residency at Shalini Ganendra Fine Arts in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia. This will also include a solo exhibition.

Publications:

It has been a busy year already in relation to all the art publications we have been involved with. “Behind the Canvas” has been selling well, backed by a pleasantly surprising number of positive reviews particularly in Art NZ, Art News, NZ House & Garden, The Listener and Home-style Magazine. For overseas clients and locals who have been unable to obtain a copy of “Behind the Canvas” locally, we confirm it can now be obtained from online suppliers “The Nile” and “Fishpond”.

Fatu Feu’u’s book “On Life & Art” also received positive feedback and good numbers and both books have been sold from the gallery as well as bookstores New Zealand wide.

The “Dark Stories by Dark Artists” book featuring Rozi Demant, published in England/China by CYPI press at the end of last year is finally available. We know it can be ordered through The Book Depository although we will be getting some copies in stock. Twenty four prominent international artists practicing in this Surrealist genre have been included in the full colour publication which we have been told is already on sale at MOMA’s bookshop in New York.

“Nga Atua” the delightfully illustrated children book by Robyn Kahukiwa is also now available from the gallery.

A New Book on Mervyn Williams: Text by Dr Edward Hanfling, Ron Sang Publishing

For some years beginning in 1998, the gallery, through group shows exhibited and sold works by celebrated NZ artist Mervyn Williams. Mervyn has recently advised us that Ron Sang Publications will be publishing a book on his art career, towards the end of this year. The text will be written by leading arts writer and author Dr Edward Hanfling. We have sold many important and fine examples of this artists work and Mervyn would like as many of these as possible to be considered for inclusion in the book. An illustrated record in a book of this quality does add to the provenance of the painting. Please contact us as soon as possible with details of your painting in relation to including your painting into the book.

Log on to the gallery or come on in. We look forward to seeing you soon.
